Deep Accommodative S-T-R-E-T-C-H Designs

Stretch design was the start of all Pedors shoes.

Since the early collaboration with Pedorthists in 1997, Pedors has strived to bring innovative and accommodative stretch designs to market that will work for the most demanding foot. Pedors shoes are easily modifiable for further customization by the practitioner.

The TSD designation signifies that these products meet the criteria for coverage under Medicare's Therapeutic Shoes for Diabetics program.

Genext Dress Orthotic

The new Genext Dress / Casual shoe orthotic has been designed with a lower profile to fit into almost any formal dress shoe or casual wear shoe.
Using the same original Genext cork and rubber shell to provide the basis for the orthotic support, a memory foam component has been added to give the arch a soft and more cushioned feel when worn.

The thermoplastic TPU base layer provides the durability to ensure the orthotic wears well and continues to provide the support needed. The microfiber top cover makes finishes the device attractively.

The Dress Orthotic is available in both Men's and Women's sizes with a neutral heel cup for rear foot stability and either with or without a metatarsal pad in the forefoot.
